

2-07-10

Dear pastor Curtis and FCC Elders,

I want to thank all of you for your love, prayers and support! Here is a brief update of my upcoming ministry in Thailand. I will be flying out from LAX late March 29. I will land and hit the ground running very early March 31st.

March 31 to April 4, I will be serving the Webers. They are Missionaries in Eastern Thailand. I will be helping with their LIFE (Learning Intensive Free English) camp. It is somewhat similar to Vacation Bible School but with adults as well. The mornings usually consist of younger students and the adults attend the early evenings. The following are the main ministries where I will be serving.

LIFE camp theme this year will be “Living Sacrifice” (Romans 12:1-2)

- Teaching English
- Guest speaker (Bible time)
- Assisting with Youth activities
- Teaching the leaders/Thai pastors the “Way of the Master” Evangelism
- April 4 celebrate “Resurrection Sunday”

April 5 to April 10, I will be serving with the Crafts. They are Missionaries in North Eastern Thailand. I will be helping with their LIFE (Learning Intensive Free English) camp.

- Teaching English
- Guest speaker (Bible time)
- Assisting with Youth activities
- Teaching the leaders/Thai pastors the “Way of the Master” Evangelism

April 11 to April 12, Bangkok @ one of the church plants and meeting with Dr. Ken Cole

April 13 to 15 Buddhist celebrations “Songkran”

- Various ministries as needed
- Meeting with our Thai exchange students parents
- April 15 return home to California

In His Love,

Ronnie Powell

rlpowell@abwe.cc